Library to Host Senior Theatre Troupe

ITHACA—Tompkins County Public Library will host an encore performance by the Senior Citizen Theatre Troupe of Lifelong, May 27 at 5:30 p.m. in the BorgWarner Community Room. An annual Library favorite, the Senior Theatre Troupe performs humorous and serious stories from troupe members' lives. They perform simply, with no lights, props or sets. The theatre being performed is developed from themes the actors pick, and the stories they tell are based on their own experiences. The theme of their spring performance is money. The Troupe is directed and coordinated by Sue Perlgut and features Natasha Tall, Carol Santucci, Sue Norvell, Deirdre Silverman, Mark Silverman, Jean Senegas, Barbara West, Eva Luby. The plays and theatre exercises performed are developed using improvisational theatre techniques, some of which will be demonstrated during the Library performance.

For more information about the Senior Citizen Troupe, contact Lifelong at 607-273-1511.

This program is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Carrie Wheeler-Carmenatty at (607) 272-4557 extension 248 or cwheeler@tcpl.org.

The Senior Theatre Troupe of Lifelong receives grant support from the Community Arts Partnership of Tompkins County.
