

Conversation with Abortion Clinic Film Collective

September 17, 2025, 7 PM

2025 Reproductive Rights Film Festival and Conversations across Screen Cultures present filmmakers of the Abortion Clinic Film Collective in conversation.

Abortion Clinic Film Collective

registration link: <https://bit.ly/RRFF25CaSC>

Moderator:

Leah Shafer

Speakers:

Kristy Guevara-Flanagan

Lynne Sachs

Cali M. Banks

Luiza Parvu

Bios

Lynne Sachs (1961) is an experimental filmmaker and poet living in Brooklyn, New York. Her films embrace archives, diaries, letters, poetry and music to take us on a critical journey through reality and memory. Working from a feminist perspective, Lynne investigates the connections between the body, the camera, and the materiality of film itself. Retrospectives of her 50 feature-length and short films have been presented in Argentina, China, Ecuador, Germany, Mexico, the UK and the US.

Luiza Parvu is a Romanian-born filmmaker, visual artist and educator based in Tempe, AZ. She is a member of the European Film Academy. She holds an MFA in Film Production from NYU Tisch. Her work has been recognized in festivals from Karlovy Vary, Sundance, BFI London, True/False to Transilvania or Tribeca. Her work spans formats in fiction and documentary film, as well as in multimedia installation. It explores identity, memory, intersectionality and transformation, with a focus on labor migration and environmental crisis. She is an Assistant Professor at Arizona State University and a programmer for the Mimesis Documentary Festival.